

Tous les sujets et corrigés des BEPC Comoriens sur le site de l'AEM Mdjankagnoi
<https://aem-20.websself.net/>

A) Global comprehension

1) Yes, he did. Because he was admitted in hospital suffering from gastroenteritis.

B) Detailed comprehension

1) No, he wasn't. Bruce was among the 1000 Aboriginal children who were victims of the . ethnic assimilation.

2) After a long time Bruce's mother wrote to the authorities to get some news.

3) No, there weren't .He was the only black child, growing up among white children.

4) No, she didn't .Because she was told he was still in hospital and they didn't let her see Bruce again until he was 10 years.

C) Vocabularya) Match sentences in column 1 to sentences in column 2

1) Women fought for their rights, didn't they?

2) People don't know where the wind comes from, do they?

b) Right or wrong

1) Wrong. He was the only black child

2) Wrong. So traumatic was his childhood and adolescence.

D) GrammarI) Replace a lot of by how much or how many

1) they spent much time at the airport the day before yesterday.

2) She has visited many beautiful beaches in Brasilia.

II) put the verbs in brackets in the correct form

1) My friends have studied English and Spanish for six months.

2) They taught science and mathematics in this town a year ago.

III) Complete the sentences with relative pronouns

1) Abdallah gave them oranges which/ that were very delicious.

2) These are the newspapers that /which I received last year.

IV) Put the following sentences in the passive form

1) A letter was forgotten by the headmaster on the table yesterday.

2) Interesting pyramids have been visited by you in Egypt.

V) Put the following sentences in the reported speech

1) The old man said (that) the guests would arrive the following day.

2) The teacher asked me if I lived in that village.

VI) Find the corresponding questions to the underlined words.

1) What time did the students go to school?

2) Where did he sell books last year?

VII) Use the gerund or the present progressive

1) They are sitting down on the grass.

2) My uncle hates driving in the evening.